

PROGRAM

9 th June 2017 – day 1
9:15 – 10:00	Registration
10:00 – 10:15	Welcome address (Professor Zoran Đogaš, Dean; professor Dolores Biočina Lukenda, Vice-dean for Dental Medicine Studies; Tina Poklepović Peričić, PhD, Cochrane Croatia Co-director)
10:15 – 11:30	Oral presentations Cochrane and Evidence Based Medicine Importance of Evidence in Dental Medicine Cochrane Oral Health Group	Speaker Jan Clarkson Helen Worthington Anne-Marie Glenny
11:30 – 11:45	Coffee break
11:45 – 13:00	Oral presentations Production and Application of Guidelines in Dental Medicine Endocarditis guidelines in Dental Medicine Preventive and therapeutic procedures in periodontology and implantology	Ana Jerončić Helen Worthington Darko Božić
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:30	Poster walk
14:30 – 15:15	Oral presentations – evidence from CSRs Water fluoridation and other fluoride interventions Oral cancer - from screening and diagnosis to treatment	Jan Clarkson Anne-Marie Glenny
15:15 – 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 – 16:30	Rapid Oral Sessions Cochrane Croatia Dissemination of Cochrane evidence Scoping literature review of studies on the use of essential medicines – preliminary findings Treatment of mucositis, xerostomia, and candidiasis in patients treated from cancer From endodontic treatment to restorative procedures Differences between a Cochrane and a non-Cochrane systematic review Cochrane Rehabilitation Field Recurrent aphthous stomatitis (mouth ulcers)	Irena Zakarija-Grković Livia Puljak Mersiha Mahmić-Kaknjo Anne-Marie Glenny Tina Poklepović Peričić Helen Worthington Frane Grubišić Jan Clarkson
16:30 – 20:00	ProHealth Workshop Promotion of methodological quality of clinical practice guidelines – opinions of health care users

9th CROATIAN COCHRANE SYMPOSIUM

Evidence Based Dental Medicine

9th and 10th June 2017

University of Split School of Medicine

10 th June 2017 – day 2
9:00 – 11:00	Presentations Where is the evidence? Guide through relevant databases and search Translation pathway from clinical trials to systematic reviews to guidelines Assessing quality of evidence – GRADE Understanding results of meta-analysis – how to read a forest plot?	Ana Utrobičić Jan Clarkson Anne-Marie Glenny Helen Worthington
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 – 12:05	Parallel workshops - I <ul style="list-style-type: none">Setting a search strategyGRADE – assessing quality of evidence from systematic reviews and interpreting the Summary of findings tables	Ana Utrobičić Anne-Marie Glenny
12:10 – 13:00	Parallel workshops - II <ul style="list-style-type: none">Interpreting results of meta-analysisAssessing risk of bias	Helen Worthington Dario Sambunjak
13:00 – 13:10	Closing remarks

9 th June 2017 ProHealth Workshop: Promotion of methodological quality of clinical practice guidelines – opinions of health care users
16:30 – 17:00	Coffee break – Introducing the participants
17:00 – 17:30	Introduction: Why are high-quality clinical practice guidelines and how to present them to the public?	Ana Marušić, ProHealth
17:30 – 18:30	Round Table: What is the value of clinical practice guidelines to doctors and patients?	Ana Jerončić, ProHealth, moderator
18:30 – 18:45	Coffee break
18:45 – 20:00	Round Table and conclusions

Round Table participants:

Ana Marušić, ProHealth, University of Split School of Medicine

Ana Jerončić, ProHealth, University of Split School of Medicine

Helen Worthington, Cochrane Oral Health Group, Manchester, UK

Jan Clarkson, Director, Effective Dental Practice Programme, University of Dundee, UK

Jasna Karačić, president, Croatian Association for patient rights

Frane Grubišić, Croatian Society for Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine

Darko Božić, University of Zagreb School of Dental Medicine

Tina Poklepović Peričić, ProHealth i Croatian Cochrane Association for the promotion of evidence based medicine