

11TH CROATIAN COCHRANE SYMPOSIUM

THE CAMPBELL COLLABORATION: SYSTEMATIC REVIEWS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

Wednesday, 8th May, 2019
University of Split School of Medicine

PROGRAM

8:30 – 9:00	Registration
9:00 – 9:15	Welcome address (Prof. Zoran Đogaš, Dean, School of Medicine; Prof. Darko Hren, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences; Dr Irena Zakarija- Grković and Dr Tina Poklepović Peričić, Co- Directors, Cochrane Croatia)
9:15 – 11:00	Keynote presentations	Speakers
	Building the evidence architecture: the role of Campbell	Vivian Welch, Editor-in-Chief, Campbell Collaboration, Canada
	Evidence and gap maps	Ashrita Saran, Evidence Synthesis Officer, Campbell Collaboration, India
	Collaboration between Cochrane and Campbell	Vivian Welch, Co - Convenor, Campbell – Cochrane Equity Methods Group, Canada
11:00 – 11:30	Morning tea
11:30 – 13:00	Oral presentations
	The why and how of scoping reviews	Ketevan Glonti, MSCA project MiRoR (H2020, ITN), Croatia
	Interventions for ethical climate: a scoping review	Marin Viđak, UoSSoM, Cochrane Croatia, Croatia
	Psychologist meets interdisciplinary systematic review: a personal case study	Ivana Burić, Radboud University, the Netherlands, Croatia
	Scientific evidence and evidence gaps in social care	Helena Domeij, Swedish Agency for Health Technology Assessment and Assessment of Social Services, Sweden
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch and poster presentations

14:00 – 15:45Round table discussions

Round table 1: Promoting use of research synthesis for policy and practice

Vivian Welch

Round table 2: Incentivizing researchers to do systematic reviews

Ashrita Saran

15:45 – 16:00Closing remarks*16:00 – 18:00*Concurrent workshops

Workshop 1: Creating an evidence gap map

Ashrita Saran

Workshop 2: Challenges in social science systematic reviews: how is Campbell different to Cochrane?

Vivian Welch