

11TH CROATIAN COCHRANE SYMPOSIUM
THE CAMPBELL COLLABORATION:
SYSTEMATIC REVIEWS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

Wednesday, 8th May, 2019
University of Split School of Medicine

PROGRAM

8:30 – 9:00	Registration
9:00 – 9:15	Welcome address (Prof. Zoran Đogaš, Dean, School of Medicine; Prof. Darko Hren, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences; Dr Irena Zakarija- Grković and Dr Tina Poklepović Peričić, Co- Directors, Cochrane Croatia)
9:15 – 11:00	Keynote presentations	Speakers
	Building the evidence architecture: the role of Campbell	Vivian Welch, Editor-in-Chief, Campbell Collaboration
	Evidence and Gap maps	Ashrita Saran, Evidence Synthesis Officer, Campbell Collaboration
	Collaboration between Cochrane and Campbell	Vivian Welch, Co - Convenor, Campbell – Cochrane Equity Methods Group
11:00 – 11:30	Morning tea
11:30 – 13:00	Oral presentations
	The why and how of scoping reviews	Ketevan Glonti, MSCA project MiRoR (H2020, ITN)
	Interventions for ethical climate: a scoping review	Marin Viđak, UoSSoM, Cochrane Croatia
	Psychologist meets interdisciplinary systematic review: a personal case study	Ivana Burić, Radboud University, the Netherlands
	Scientific evidence and evidence gaps in social care	Helena Domeij, SBU, Sweden
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch and Poster presentations
14:00 – 15:45	Round table discussions
	Round table 1: Promoting use of research synthesis for policy and practice	Vivian Welch
	Round table 2: Incentivizing researchers to do systematic reviews	Ashrita Saran

15:45 – 16:00Closing remarks*16:00 – 18:00*Concurrent workshopsWorkshop 1: Creating an evidence gap mapAshrita SaranWorkshop 2: Challenges in social science systematic reviews:
how is Campbell different to Cochrane?Vivian Welch*