

Karla Soares-Weiser

The presentation will be reflecting on the learnings from the COVID-19 pandemic response and how we as Cochrane will think about the way we work together in the future, by addressing working in collaboration with Cochrane Groups and members, priority setting, support for producing high priority reviews, relationship with key stakeholders (such as WHO), and fast track editorial process of reviews.